Well, is wasn't just his words.
I guess it's his entire being: his personality and how he approaches life and challenges.
He was never the best and he fails a lot, but he can still be so cheerful.

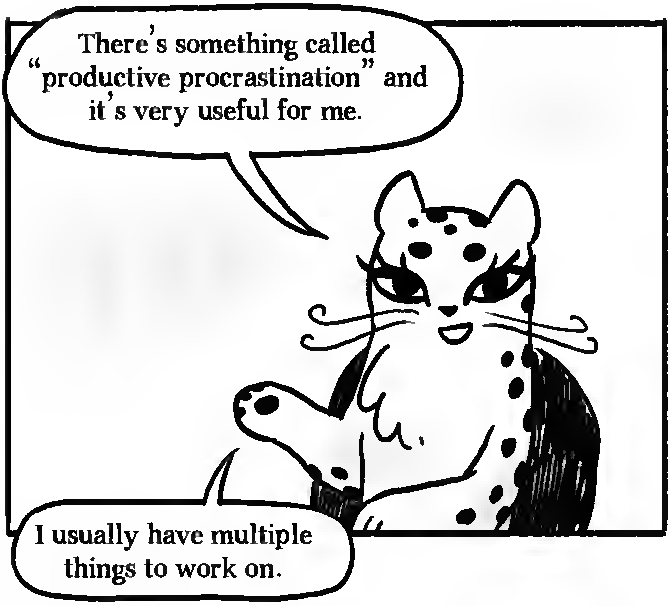
Dear Cheetah-B, How do you avoid procrastinating?
It's something I always do to avoid doing my work..



There's something called "productive procrastination" and it's very useful for me.
I usually have multiple things to work on.

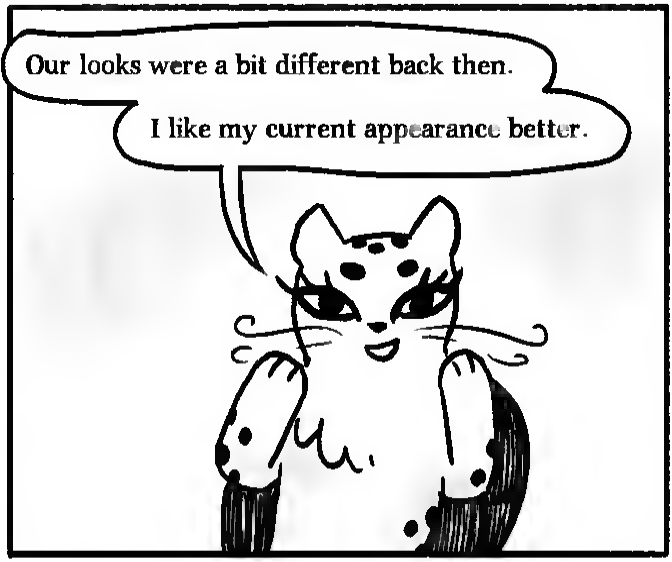
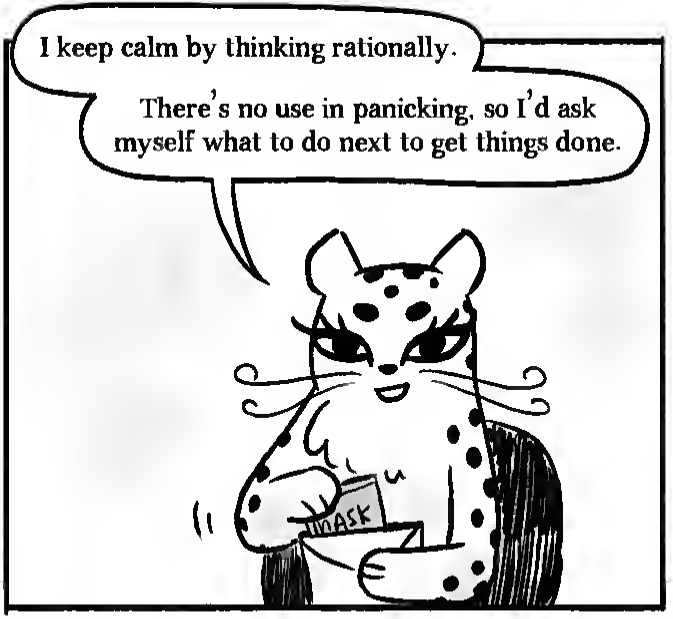
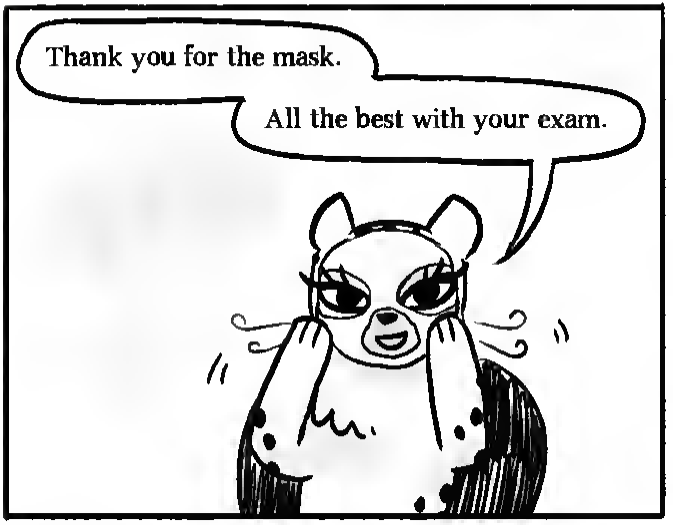
No, I don't have a crush right now.
Leo and I are close friends.
We are not in a relationship.



Our looks were a bit different back then.
I like my current appearance better.



I keep calm by thinking rationally.
There's no use in panicking, so I'd ask myself what to do next to get things done.
MASK



Thank you for the mask.
All the best with your exam.

I felt really stupid for getting all depressed over one mistake – the world is not going to end because of that.

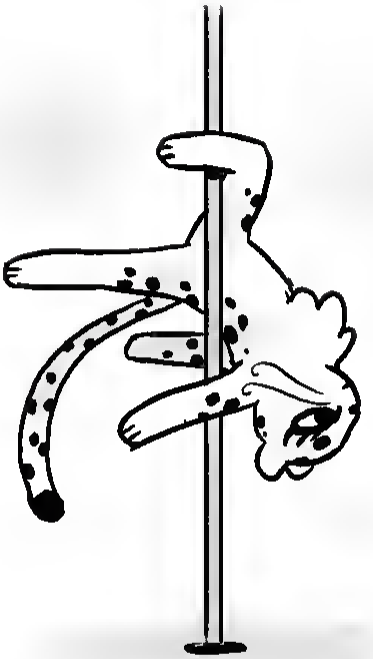
OW! Haha!
Cut it out



It's also fun to try out different recipes. I usually cook for myself, but sometimes I cook for friends on weekends.

I'll sleep now and continue early next morning...

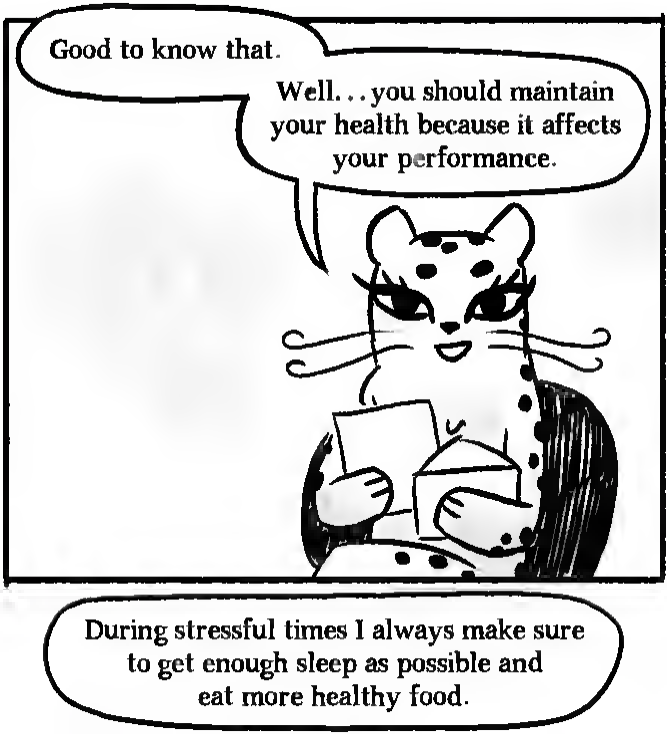
Maybe Leo ?

Tiffany

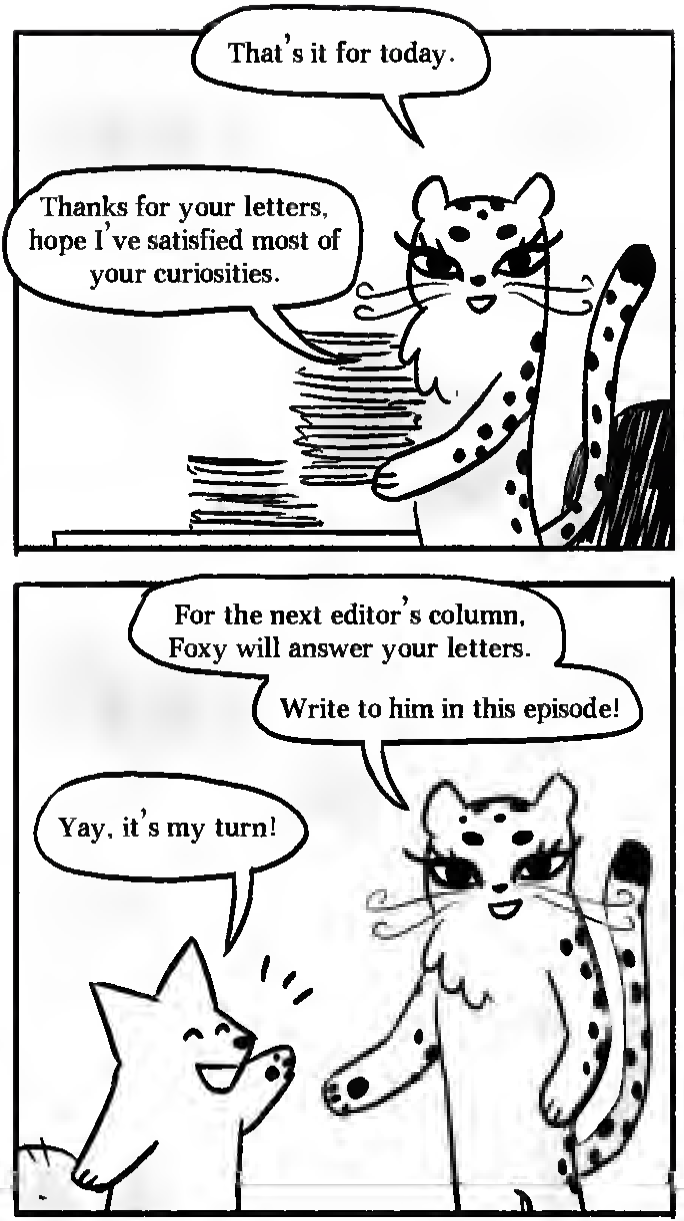
Dear Cheetah-B Do you like Leo? do you ever fall in love with someone? and Who is your best friend?

Jonawi Ng

Dear Cheetah-B, do you have a crush on Leo?

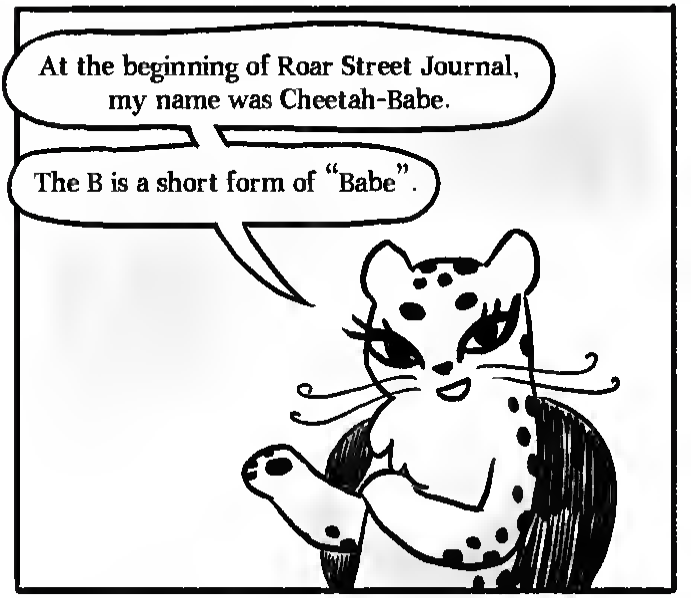


Good to know that.
Well... you should maintain your health because it affects your performance.
During stressful times I always make sure to get enough sleep as possible and eat more healthy food.



That's it for today.
Thanks for your letters, hope I've satisfied most of your curiosities.
For the next editor's column, Foxy will answer your letters.
Write to him in this episode!
Yay, it's my turn!

Very funny.



At the beginning of Roar Street Journal, my name was Cheetah-Babe.
The B is a short form of "Babe".

Marisa

alfian dwi chandra

Dear cheetah-B... i want to ask a question.. have you ever feel so tired, bored and stress with your job? What do you do to avoid stress in your job?

You need to get good grades, dating is for later
I'd say it's because all those guys were not good enough for you...

When I procrastinate about A, I go to work on B.

When I'm tired of B, I go to work on A.

It's like switching between different projects.

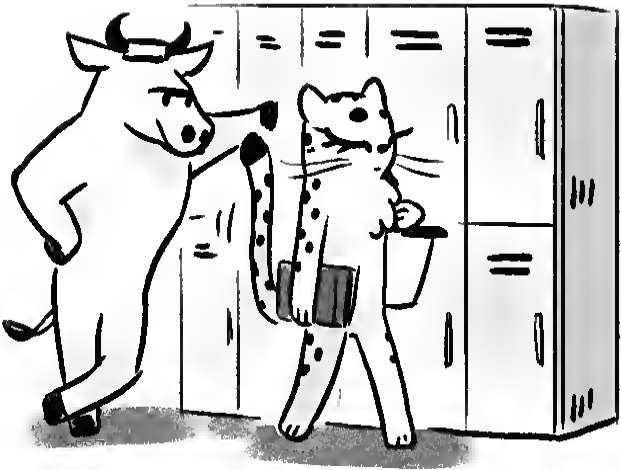
Dear Cheetah-B, i love your sophisticated and pretty look in all episodes of RSJ! Please tell us more about your family! Much love for you

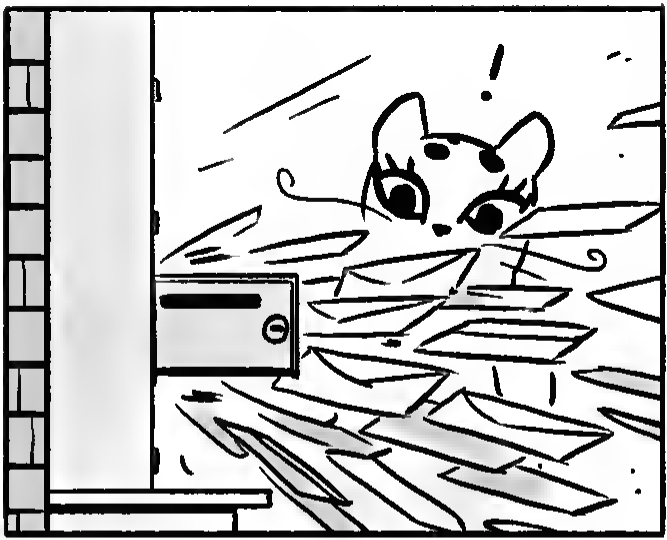
Uchil Wendy

I like Master Elephunk's family! They're so special. And for Cheetah~B ,may I know more about your background? Do you live with your family? Are you a single child?



Nothing's better than being with friends when you feel lonely.

...but I guess he's special in some ways.



I feel really loved.

I like exercising and cooking.
They are both good at taking off my stress.

I joined a gym membership to go to all kinds of classes.

Dear Cheetah-B! I'm in the middle of my exams, and during this stressful time I have drawn a lot of inspiration from you and how you handle stress!

Could you please share some tips on how to keep calm and take care of yourself even when your schedule is full?

Lots of love (and a sheet mask) from a fellow busy girl

Dear Cheetah-B, a friend of mine just had some major lost of confidence and depression

She was very much like you before that hard-working, brilliant, always the best in everything But she had a burn-out and she feels as if she were the worst now, though we all tell her she isn't

You once experimented that state of mind I'd like to know how you were able to overcome this issue Were Leo's words enough to put you at ease and restore your confidence? Did something else help you? Thanks =)

Baylee Csomo

Cheetah-B, do you ever get really lonely? If so what do you do to make yourself feel better?

The very first episode of RSJ, "How Animals Take Selfies", when it was in the challenge league before becoming a featured webtoon.

I also read a lot of self-help books at that time.

Dear Cheetah-B, you're so pretty! Did a lot of guys confessed to you when you were at school? Please tell me more about your love life! :p

Yes, I'm a single child.
My dad is an accountant and my mum is a teacher.

They put great effort in nurturing me,
so I was pretty good in a lot of things.

...the fact is, I don't have a boyfriend.
I have never had a boyfriend.
Sorry to disappoint you, bet you didn't expect that.
I was pretty popular at school and a lot of boys confessed to me, but I turned them all down because I needed to focus on my studies.

Cheetah-Britney!!
Cheetah-Bananas?

Rebecca Karissa

Cheetah-B, what does that B on your name stand for? And tell me about your family
